One Regional Course- Geographic emphasis composed of one course devoted to a single world region or country that is related to foreign language of study. This course cannot be double counted with a track course. Minimum credit hours: 3 Credits

Course: ________________________________

Three electives- The electives are designed to allow students to personalize their IS major by choosing three upper level courses of particular interest that build upon their track with the approval of the International Studies advisor. The selected courses should thus contribute to the coherence of the student's overall IS concentration. There is no pre-approved list for electives. Students may take additional track, regional or relevant study abroad courses as electives. Minimum credit hours: 9 Credits
