

Emma K. Soberano
soberano@umich.edu
Phone: (530) 902-1899

Education/Awards

University of Michigan

2018-present

Graduate student, English Language and Literature

Grinnell College, 2017

B.A. English with Honors, B.A. General Science

English Honors: 3.95 Major GPA

Henry York Steiner Prize for Short Fiction 2016 & 2017, 1st Place

Selden Whitcomb Prize for 4 Poems 2016 & 2017, 2nd Place

Selden Whitcomb Prize for Critical Literature Essay 2017, 2nd Place

Experience

Graduate Student Instructor, University of Michigan

English 125: Writing/Science/Fiction current

Semesters taught: Fall 2019, Winter 2020

Presenter, Interdisciplinary Nineteenth Century Studies (INCS) “Green” Conference

Upcoming: March 2020

Heathcliff as Bog-Creature: Racialized Ecologies in Wuthering Heights

Presenter, Michigan University-wide Sustainability and Environment (MUSE) Conference

Panel: Social, Racial, and Environmental Justice, upcoming: February 2020

Heathcliff as Bog-Creature: Racialized Ecologies in Wuthering Heights

Presenter, Midwest MLA Conference

Panel: Victorian Poetry November 2019

“She said only”: Matter, Subjectivity, and Echoic Intra-Action in Tennyson’s “Mariana”

Editorial Assistant Victorian Literature and Culture

January 2019 - August 2019

Responsibilities included: copyediting, assisting cover design, managing social media accounts.

Languages: Bilingual-level reading, writing, and speaking ability in Spanish