HISTORY GRADUATION PROGRAM

Modern Languages Building Auditorium 3

April 27, 2012

3:00-4:00

Rebecca J. Scott is a specialist on the history of slavery, law, and citizenship in Latin America and the United States. With co-author Jean M. Hébrard, she is the author most recently of Freedom Papers: An Atlantic Odyssey in the Age of Emancipation. (Harvard University Press, 2012), from which the historical examples in her talk today are drawn. She is also the mother of two UM graduates, Thomas Scott-Railton (BA History and Philosophy 2010) and John Scott-Railton (MSci Architecture 2009).
